

Jainco™ CV3061F

Hand Builder

Jainco™ CV3061F is a high performance copolymer dispersion designed for imparting strength and abrasion resistance in many types of yarns as well as fabrics to improve weaving and cut/sew efficiencies. At recommended add-on rates, the Jainco™ CV3061F is easily desizable or removed during standard scouring conditions.

FEATURES

- . Hand Builder
- . Little to no effect on shades/whites
- . Compatible with finishing auxiliaries such as lubricants.
- . Improves hand for cut and sew process

TYPICAL PROPERTIES

Appearance:	White Emulsion
Type:	Anionic
Activity:	44.5%
pH:	4.0 – 6.0

Recommended usage level for pad application 1 - 4% on weight of bath to provide adequate hand for most fabrics. Please consult your Jain Chem representative for recommendations and assistance.

NOTE:

Suggestions for the use of our products are based on test results and are believed to be reliable; however, due to variations in consumer handling and methods of compounding, we do not guarantee the results to be obtained. Jain Chem Ltd does not assume any liability for customer's use of any materials in compliance with applicable law or whether any process shown herein infringes the intellectual property rights of any third party.